FOR GOVERNOR,

[illegible]

Union for the Union---The Peril of the Country

The recognition of the Union Democracy which was made by the Republican County Convention on Thursday, in providing for the adoption of part of the County nominations of that party was no more than a just tribute to the loyal position of the largest portion of the democrats and was also indicative of the conviction widely prevalent among both Republicans and Democrats of the necessity of a united action among all loyal citizens, in support of the Government, and for a vigorous prosecution of the war

The fact is not to be concealed that the country is in the most imminent peril and the time may be near at hand when the loyal North has got to be aroused as one man in defence of our republican institutions The lines must then be drawn—every man who is not for the country and for Republican government will surely be against them, and all who are in favor of the Union and reality to defend our dearest interests as freemen must be found shoulder to shoulder in the great cause must act together in harmony Old party jealousies and prejudices must be thrown aside in view of the vital emergency in which the country is now placed The Republicans thus far in their State and County convention resolutions have entirely ignored partizan topics—they have neither advanced their own peculiar doctrines as Republicans nor have they made noxious allusions either to the doctrines or the actions of the democrats Confining themselves entirely to the great question of sustaining the Government in this hour of the country's peril they have done and said nothing to prevent a cordial and harmonious union between themselves and the loyal democrats in the work of defending the government against the assaults of armed rebels and saving for ourselves and our children a country in which to dwell We trust that the spirit thus manifested will be met in like manner by the Union Democracy Let all offensive political topics be passed by until the country is saved—We must go into this work with the single idea that every one given to be tasked to the utmost in the one work of saving the country from utter ruin and that the union of all loyal men must be cordial and thorough to that end with out thought of former political differences.

If this spirit is not aroused the days of the Republic are numbered The determined and extraordinary efforts of the rebel leaders demonstrate the fact that we must either conquer or be conquered If the South is allowed to prevail in this contest against the General Government the North must ever after be subject to the South, whether in or out of the Union No reconstruction would probably take place and the most humiliating terms would be imposed upon us before we could even have peace between the two confederacies The ultimate object of the leaders and masters of this great rebellion is undoubtedly to break up all Republican Government in this country and they will first establish a monarchical or military oligarchy in the South (if they succeed in their present rebellion) and then endeavor to extend their own form of government and institutions over the free North The very life of every republican institution in America is perhaps dependent upon the result of the present contest With so momentous an issue then, is there a single man of loyal heart who will hesitate to lay aside every feeling except that of love and devotion to the country, and unite with both heart and hand in its defence?

☞ The Union Democrats carried the Androscoggin County Convention, on Wednesday, and passed resolutions in favor of Mr Jameson The Lewiston Advocate goes for the Union Democratic ticket, and puts up Jameson's name The Rockland Democrat will do the same. The six principal democratic papers in the State repudiate the Secession Convention, and go for Jameson The Freeman Patriot will, we presume, do the same The papers which go for submission to the rebels, or support the anti war candidates, are the Argus, the Machias Union, the Saco Democrat and the Anson Advocate.

A LARGE HAUL FOR A SMALL BOY As Capt Edward Merrill was returning to this city on Friday last, from his farm on Nashawena, when just this side of the Dumpling Light, his son Frank who makes up in pluck what he lacks in size, discovered a shark playing about the bows of the boat He at once armed his dart and drove it into the shark, hitting him between the vertebrae, and mastering him so that with the aid of his father with a boat hook, the monster was hauled on board He measured, as we saw him at Merrill's wharf, six feet from the tip of his snout to the end of his tail, and weighed about one hundred and fifty pounds. His mouth was filled with divers rows of serrated teeth, looking more formidable than any mincing machine we ever saw Frank felt as grand as Cæsar, when "he came, and saw, and conquered" New Bedford Mercury

EDWARD EVERETT UPON SECESSION JOURNALS. Mr Everett's last paper in the New York Ledger, discusses the rights and duties of war, with especial reference to the proper distinction to be observed between the ordinary usages of law and the necessities of military authority in time of war We copy a part of Mr Everett's remarks on this subject. He intimates that journals whose course is dangerous to the country in time of war, should be suppressed by the government.

There are presses, for the most part in the border States, though some of them are found in cities more remote from the scene of action, which are daily pleading the cause of the enemy, misrepresenting and villifying the Government of the United States, exaggerating every article of unfavorable intelligence, and exerting themselves to the utmost to dishearten the friends and defenders of the Constitution and the Union It seems to have been thought better by those in authority to tolerate the mischief of these unpatriotic presses, than to elevate them into great importance by persecution, or to encroach in the slightest degree upon the freedom of public discussion, which in ordinary times is justly regarded as one of the greatest safeguards of liberty

But it is preposterous to sacrifice the end to the means We should, in this respect learn wisdom from the enemies of the Union While we regard, as unbecoming our Christian civilization that resort to lynch law, by which every expression of opinion adverse to the popular sentiment is suppressed in the seceding States, we ought to remember that in tolerating a traitorous press, among ourselves we practice a liberality which awakens no gratitude at home, and is never reciprocated by the opposite party It is in fact an absurdity in terms, under the venerable name of liberty of the press to permit the systematic and scentious abuse of a government which is tasked to the utmost in defending the country from general disintegration and political chaos.

The Governor of Malta was once censured in Parliament for some alleged severity toward the editor of a journal in that island, and the liberty of the press was declared to be in danger

The Duke of Wellington said he was as friendly as any one to the liberty of the press in London but a free press in the island of Malta was as much out of place as it would be on the quarter deck of a man of war We suppose the most enthusiastic champion of the liberty of the press would hardly think it proper to publish a journal within the walls of Fort McHenry in which the officers of the garrison should be daily advised to desert, and the men be constantly exhorted to mutiny and whose columns should be filled with persistent abuse of the government and all engaged in its defence. Why should journals of that description be allowed to diffuse their poison beneath its walls, amidst the excitable population of a large city?

Not merely is all freedom of speech and of the press prohibited in the seceding States, but the most quiet and the humblest rights of citizenship are interdicted When the ordinance of secession was about to be submitted to the vote of the people of Virginia, a distinguished Senator of that State in Congress and who in that position was under oath to support the Constitution of the United States, published a letter signed with his name in which he declared that such citizens of Virginia as did not approve the ordinance must leave the State a summary sentence of confiscation and banishment against about a third part of the people of that ancient commonwealth, a sentence which the seceding majority are now attempting to enforce at the point of the bayonet to illustrate that the right of government rests upon the consent of the governed.

ANOTHER DEMOCRATIC PAPER TAKES A LOYAL STAND Following the patriotic example of the Augusta Age and Bath Times, the old Belfast Journal (for more than thirty years the recognized organ of the Waldo Democracy) comes out for the nominees of the Union Democracy, Col Charles D Jameson, and repudiates the action of the disloyal secession democrats who obtained control of the Augusta Convention We take the following from the leading article of the Journal of this week

Under what circumstances did our State convention meet? Certainly under such as no other one has met. One section of this Union in open and unjustifiable armed rebellion against the great majority of States—the capital of the Union menaced—the seas infested with pirates, preying on our national commerce,—indeed every legacy bequeathed to us by our fathers put to the peril of trial by combat! And for what cause? By what overt act on the part of the States of the Union some slave States as well as the free States? We say by none—for the late administration studiously avoided any provocative acts and before the present had had time to commit any the cannon of the rebellious states had opened on our national fortification of Fort Sumter but it by the care of the nation for the protection of a sister city of South Carolina. Could there be a more fratricidal act? Never did the history of the world exhibit one more so and the sin followed by force of arms and men and stolen means until the date—and we doubt not last—of what to our nationality was given in the fight in Virginia

It was under this condition of affairs that the State convention met Under the paralyzing blow that treason and disunion have given us there was no canvassing for delegates Even where towns were represented by men true to the Union only a part, and in some instances none came. The result was that the majority of the delegates actually voted down a proposition to the effect that we would act to suppress rebellion and enforce the observance of the Constitution and laws! (We say such action in no way represents the democracy of Maine. More than this, it is an imputation on such men as the gallant Col Jameson, who obeying the injunctions of his democratic teachers in political philosophy went forth to the battle to uphold his country's insulted flag, and the Union and its Constitution and laws. It is for these acts, and from the fact that he stands as the gallant representative of the principles of our party while others have refused to recognize these principles, that we recommend to the democracy of Maine the hearty support of Col. Charles D Jameson, as our candidate for governor"

INCIDENT AT CHURCH As the story goes, a devoted member of the D——Church, and a most ardent Union man, attended 'divine worship,' according to his invariable custom, but the weather being warm and oppressive, the worthy citizen fell asleep in his pew during the early part of the service.

He slumbered quite pleasantly, and, just before the sermon began, the choir and congregation sang a patriotic hymn that filled the sleeper's mind with a love of country that could not be resisted The text was, "And what think ye of Christ?" repeated emphatically several times by the minister

This appeal to the slumberer was too direct, and his thoughts becoming confused in his half wakeful, half dreaming state, he forgot where he was, and the exact nature of the question, and responded o loudly and distinctly that he could be heard through half of the church

"Think? I think and know he is all right, he's for the Union all the time!"

The effect of this unexpected and altogether secular utterance upon the pious brothers and sisters may be better fancied than related. A few looked horrified, but more could scarcely refrain from laughter

Yet who shall say the somnolent patriot was not correct in his semi-unconscious declaration? —Cincinnati Press.

THE WAR FEELING IN THE WEST On this subject the Illinois correspondent of the New York World gives the following figures

"A report which has just been made from the Adjutant General's office of this State, will give your readers some idea of the extent of the war feeling in the West. There are twenty thousand men in the service of this Government from Illinois, under former calls Ten independent regiments have been accepted, all of which are nearly ready for the field The Governor has, in addition, been authorized to raise thirteen regiments of infantry, five of cavalry, and one battery of artillery For these thirteen regiments, or one hundred and thirty companies—five hundred and twelve companies of infantry have been tendered, for the cavalry, one hundred and two companies, and for the artillery, twenty two companies Besides all these, some ten thousand men have enlisted in Missouri regiments. So the account with this State stands about as follows

Old levy,	20,000
Independent regiments,	10,000
New levy,	17,000
In regiments of other States,	10,000
Total,	57,000

If we add the companies tendered under the last call, we find that Illinois has over 100,000 men ready for the war, who can be put into the field in the course of a few weeks. All that is wanting is the arms and equipments for this State alone to fit out an army capable of carrying the Stars and Stripes triumphantly from Cairo to the Gulf"

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS IN AUBURN The democrats of Auburn met at Auburn Hall, last evening to choose delegates to the County Convention There was a very good attendance of democrats and other citizens who happened in to see the movements By a decided vote Union delegates were elected, whereupon Apollos Howard (Breckenridge) pitched into the Union men, calling them "bolters," "war men," and declaiming himself in favor of withdrawing our army from Southern soil He called attention to the "war tax," and informed the audience that he people never would stand it Calvin Record, Esq., (Union) replied in a very eloquent and able manner, and asked Howard what would have been thought if our forefathers in the war of the revolution had backed down on the ground that war was expensive. E T Luce Esq., in a brief and pungent speech, applied the lash to the secessionist sympathizers, and suggested to Mr Howard that the accusation of bolter came with poor grace from him who was one of the seven that bolted Douglas and voted for Breckenridge Capt James Goff rose and inquired of Mr Howard how he proposed to obtain peace Mr Howard was unable to point out any particular way except by submission on our part Capt Goff very aptly observed that he was for "peace" even if he had to fight for it, as he thought this was the only road to peace now Capt Emerson, of the Auburn artillery (who recently returned from the seat of war) applied the lash still harder to the Breckenridge leader by calling attention to the infamy of the suggestion to withdraw our forces from Virginia when the enemy's pickets were within five miles of the Capitol Others made patriotic speeches, all of which were received with tremendous applause Leaders may plot and plan to break up the Union and aid rebellion, but the masses of the people will destroy such plans and stand by the country and the flag —Lewiston Journal

THE GOLD EXCITEMENT We take the following letter from a late Halifax paper

"I have observed so many exaggerated accounts in the Halifax papers respecting the gold fields in Lunenburg and in some of which my name has been mentioned that I think it but right to correct the reports I do this in particular as I have been informed that numbers of farmers and others have deserted their farms and daily occupations in order to go to "the Ovens and fill their pockets I spent two days days there with eight or ten men working what is considered the best washing claim on the shore I brought the result of the two days labor to Halifax and I should think when the gold is cleared away from the fine sand, that I have an ounce perhaps an ounce and a half This was the result of a day and one half, or two days work, for, say eight men Any one wishing to see the gold can do so by calling at my office When I was at "the Ovens I could have hired any number of men for, I should say four or five shillings per day and should think from the number of persons I could hear have washed an ounce per man per day, but I think even these accounts have been much exaggerated The washing hitherto has been confined to a small part of the shore, say one or two hundred feet, persons washing on other parts of the shore are doing little or nothing

W CUNARD"

Here we have it from good authority that the "accounts have been much exaggerated."

FALL OF AN AEROLITE. The London Times has an account by an eye witness of the fall of an aerolite of enormous size. A rushing sound gradually increasing in intensity, made itself heard until at last with a terrific roar a flaming mass plunged into the road Laborers were called and succeeded in disinterring what proved to be a most magnificent aerolite, the weight being 8¾ pounds It had buried itself nearly six feet in the ground, and was red hot when reached While cooling, the crystal assumed, constantly changing, the most beautiful prismatic hues Its specific gravity was much greater than that of iron A strong smell of sulphur was diffused immediately after the descent and several crystals of that element were found in the cavities on the upper surface

AID FOR MISSOURI A dispatch from Chicago to the Missouri Democrat says

The Secretary of War has ordered the Governor of Illinois to prepare all the men at his disposal for instant removal to St. Louis We are not advised how many are ready to move upon the Governor's order, but have no doubt that if St Louis is threatened, both Illinois and Wisconsin will send all the men that you can provide with muskets. Governor Yates is of the opinion that all the regiments in the State tendered to the Government can be filled without difficulty The offers of companies are very numerous, and the war spirit of the people is at fever heat.

THE DIRECT TAX IN MAINE ALREADY PAID Our farmers and property holders generally will be glad to learn that, though a direct tax is laid upon Maine, no levy of the same will probably be made on the estates of individual citizens—as in fact the tax is already paid The whole amount of the tax is $420 862, and 15 per cent is deducted if a State will assume the payment This takes off some $63,000, and leaves about $357,000 to be paid Another provision of the bill allows advances made by any State for the general government to stand in offset as payment of the tax, and as Maine has already advanced over $700,000 in this way, her portion of the tax is doubly paid six months before it is due. The entire burden, therefore, which will be placed on the people, will be the interest on the tax, which will be some $21,000, or a little more that three cents to each inhabitant of the State.—Maine Farmer

DECLINES THE APPOINTMENT. Major Henry Prince of the regular army, a gallant son of Maine, declines the commission of Brigadier General, tendered him by the President. Col. Charles D Jameson is mentioned in many quarters with great favor, for the position.—Kennebec Journal

We learn that the company enlisted by Col. East at Rockport is fast filling up, and will probably answer the new call of the Secretary of War for men to defend Washington.—Belfast Journal.

LOCAL AND MAINE ITEMS.

 Subscriptions for a less time than three months 50 cents per month.

FROM THE SECOND REGIMENT Different statements have been published in relation to the food, clothing, &c., of our soldiers at Washington—many of which we have no doubt are overdrawn and exaggerated. That there has been too much delay in procuring the new supplies of clothing we think is true, but precisely where the fault is does not yet appear We have no doubt the regiment is now or soon will be properly clothed In regard to food we cannot think there has been any serious or long continued deficiency A friend has just handed us the following extract of a letter from a private soldier to his friends in this city The letter is dated August 14th

"We have as much provision as we can eat, and so do all the rest. There is no mistake about it. We live first rate I will tell you what we have. We have corned beef, fresh beef, beans, bakers bread, hard bread tea, coffee, molasses, sugar, pepper, rice, hominy and many other things which I certainly never expected to get here. In fact we have everything that we want The climate is not near as hot as I expected to find it I have not suffered from heat as yet."

OUR MAINE TROOPS The Seventh Regiment was to leave Augusta for Washington yesterday, (Friday)

The Eighth Regiment has commenced rendezvousing at Augusta One company has already come in, and two more are expected in this week This regiment will probably be ready to leave in ten or fifteen days

The Ninth Regiment has commenced recruiting, and will probably begin to rendezvous at Augusta in about two weeks.

The First Regiment has decided to reorganize and return to Washington immediately Gov Washburn, Adj t Gen Holsdon and Quarter master General Hastings are at work day and night

PERSONAL Major F S Nickerson, of the Maine Fourth, arrived at Belfast on the Sanford on Sunday His health has become impaired by his active service at Great Exposure The Department, out of consideration for his valuable services and the state of his health, gave him a brief furlough, at or before the expiration of which he will resume his position in the army

☞ We learn that the citizens of Searsport have forwarded to Company I Fourth Maine Regiment, (the Searsport company) 2,000 pounds of different articles for the use and comfort of the company The boxes went by the Sanford, to Boston and were forwarded thence by army express

☞ Brig C C Billings, (of Bangor) Cort, from Salt Cay via Grand Turk for Newport, R I for orders reports while coming out of Grand Turk struck on a reef and threw overboard between 500 and 600 bushels of salt to get her off

Mr J M Philbrick, overseer on the Bates yard fell from his chair at the dinner table to day noon, and before a physician could be obtained expired The cause of his death was disease of the heart —Lewiston Journal, 20th

Parson Brownlow The following letter from Parson Brownlow is published in the Washington Republican of Tuesday It is without date, but is recent, and shows discredit on the report that this fearless friend of the Union has been borne away by the tide of secession

"An order has been made at Richmond to suppress the publication of the Knoxville Whig, but the notice has not been served, on me yet I have given them the devil in this day's paper, and I shall continue to say just what I please, until my office is closed or destroyed by brute force.

They have about run me ashore in a pecuniary sense—broke up my business—withheld all letters containing subscriptions, and thus I am driven to the wall, with more subscribers on my list than the eight secession papers of East Tennessee all put together. But I will starve, or beg my bread of Union men, before I will surrender to this vile heresy of secession.

With my best wishes, &c., &c.,

W. G. Brownlow.

CIRCULAR.

WE, the undersigned, dealers in Lumber, hereby agree and promise that we will not, during the present year, take orders or contract to saw any Spruce Lumber, such as is commonly called random Spruce, at a less price than eight dollars per thousand feet. And for Spruce where the memorandum calls for particular lengths, as well as sizes, the price may be regulated by the difficulty or expense of manufacturing the same and the value of the logs out of which the same is to be sawed, but shall be more than eight dollars.

The foregoing is not intended to apply to Spruce not sawed to order and which may be already in the dock and surveyed, neither is it intended to prohibit us from deducting the usual commission from the above prices to parties living in Bangor who deal in lumber

The above agreement shall take effect immediately and continue in force until otherwise determined by a majority of the parties whose names are hereto affixed and to the strict observance of said agreement we hereby pledge our word and honor

Rumored trouble between France, England and Mexico—The Privateer Sumter again—Russell Refused a pass Across the Potomac—An Irish Brigade to be raised in New York—Two Prizes were captured—7th Maine Regiment Bound to Washington—Vessel Seized at Port and bound to a Rebel Port.

NEW YORK, 22d

The Times Mexican correspondent reports a diplomatic rupture between England and France and that country, the reason being the passage of an act by the Mexican congress suspending for a time the payment of instalments due on bonds held by foreigners

It is believed that this is a mere cloak to the real destruction of the Constitutional Government and the establishment of a Protectorate It is supposed that the helpless condition of the United States has given boldness to the proceedings The American Minister, it is said, is going in favor of Mexico

The right of way has been granted for the passage of US soldiers over Mexican territory It is well understood that whatever be the sympathies due to our Southern rebellion

WASHINGTON, 22d

The panic still pervades our entire commercial and business relations Therefore that our citizens are in danger women and children are simply ridiculously untrue Some excitement several days ago but this has been by the measures of the administration against all possible contingencies

When Gen Scott several days ago was pressed by Gen McClellan a post on his staff he has accepted the appointment He will leave Washington to-morrow morning for the organization of a regiment of horse artillery, a flying battery of artillery already contained an infantry force

"SEBIAN SYRUP,"

OR PROTECTED
SOLUTION OF PROTOXIDE OF IRON CHEMICAL.

This well known Remedy has been used extensively and with great success for

DYSPEPSIA,

Or Impaired and Imperfect Digestion;

FOR THE CONSEQUENT

DETERIORATION OF THE BLOOD;

AND FOR THE FOLLOWING

FORMS OF DISEASE,

Most of which originate in DYSPEPSIA:

LIVER COMPLAINT, DROPSY, NEURALGIA and NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, LOSS OF APPETITE, HEADACHE, LANGUOR and DEPRESSION of SPIRITS, CARBUNCLES and BOILS, PILES, SCURVY, AFFECTIONS OF THE SKIN, CONSUMPTIVE TENDENCIES, BRONCHITIS, DISEASES PECULIAR TO FEMALES, & ALL COMPLAINTS ACCOMPANIED BY GENERAL DEBILITY, AND REQUIRING

A TONIC AND ALTERATIVE MEDICINE.

Note.—The Silver of IRON is a remedy for Dyspepsia, a bad state of the blood, and the numerous diseases caused thereby, has arisen from the want of such a preparation of iron as shall enter the stomach in a Protoxide state, and assimilate at once with the blood. This want the PERUVIAN SYRUP supplies, and it does so in the easy form in which it presents the iron to enter the circulation. For this reason the PERUVIAN SYRUP often succeeds where other preparations of iron and other medicines have failed to be of no avail.

Certificate of A. A. HAYES, M. D., of Boston.

I have found the Peruvian Syrup a valuable preparation of iron, when my patients have taken it according to directions, and have found it a valuable tonic in the form of Dyspepsia, Nervous Affections, and Debility of the Nervous System.
A. A. HAYES, Assayer to the State of Mass.
15 Pemberton Sq., Boston.

Certificate of Jas. R. Chilton, M. D., of N. York.

It is well known that it has been found very difficult to prepare a palatable form for a soluble salt of iron, in consequence of the free acid of the salt. This difficulty I am pleased to say, is obviated in the Peruvian Syrup.

ATWOOD'S

Quinine Tonic

BITTERS,

The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.

Recommended by the Faculty

For its Superior Medicinal Qualities!

THIS elegant Compound which has secured the confidence and encouragement of many of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine containing all the general virtues of Peruvian Bark, carefully combined with various tonics and stomachics, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.

It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, permanently good in dyspepsia, nervousness and irritation arising from the digestive and nervous systems, after prostrating diseases, and in fevers and a number of kindred complaints.

For diarrhœa, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is not can be any better preparation.

One of the very best physicians in Boston has said "that it is the very best preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."

Put up in half pint as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superiority.

For further particulars reference is made to the printed circular.

DR. SWEETS

Infallible Liniment!

Great External Remedy

For Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Stiff Neck and Joints, Sprains, Bruises, Cuts and Wounds, Piles, Headache, and all Rheumatic and Nervous Disorders.

FOR all of which it is a speedy and certain remedy, and never fails. This Liniment is prepared from the recipe of Dr. Stephen Sweet, of Connecticut, the famous bone setter, and has been used in his practice for more than twenty years with the most astonishing success.

AS AN ALLEVIATOR OF PAIN it is unrivalled by any preparation before the public, of which the most skeptical may be convinced by a single trial.

This Liniment will cure rapidly and radically RHEUMATIC DISORDERS of every kind, and a thousand cases where it has been used, it has never been known to fail.

FOR NEURALGIA it will afford immediate relief in every case, however distressing.

It will relieve the worst cases of HEADACHE in three minutes, and is warranted to do it.

TOOTHACHE also will it cure instantly.

FOR NERVOUS DEBILITY and GENERAL LASSITUDE arising from imprudence or excess, this Liniment is a most happy and gladdening remedy. Application upon the nervous system is immediate, and revivifies the system, and restores it to elasticity and vigor.

FOR PILES—As an external remedy, we claim that it is the best known, and we can state that it will produce an equal. Every variety of chronic complaints it will prove its virtues in, and we feel no hesitation in saying that in most cases it will afford immediate relief, and in a majority of cases it effects a speedy cure.

QUINSY AND SORE THROAT are sometimes extremely dangerous and dangerous, but a timely application of this Liniment will never fail to cure.

SPRAINS are sometimes very obstinate, and an ingredient of lameness is liable to occur if neglected. The worst case may be conquered by this Liniment in two or three days.

BRUISES, CUTS, WOUNDS, SORES, ULCERS, BURNS AND SCALDS, yield readily to the wonderful healing properties of DR. SWEET'S INFALLIBLE LINIMENT, when used according to directions.

ALSO, CHILBLAINS, FROSTED FEET, and INSECT BITES AND STINGS.

Every Horse Owner

in the best manner, and at the very lowest prices. From his experience, his facilities for doing business, and the character of his workmen, he flatters himself that in the production of durable and substantial Carriages, his establishment will be second to none in the State.

MR. GEO. S. WALKER

Well known to be one of the best Carriage Painters in New England, still has the charge of his painting department; offering a very rare inducement to those who would have their work done in an elegant and durable manner to leave their work at the establishment. All work warranted to give entire satisfaction, and all bills for work payable when the work is done.

"SEBIAN SYRUP"

MRS. WILSON'S

HAIR REGENERATOR.

The Regenerator is put up in two sizes, and retails for 50 cents for pint bottles, and $1 for quart bottles. The quart bottles are much the cheapest.

Who wants a Good Head of Hair? Use Mrs. Wilson's Hair Regenerator and Hair Dressing.
